General Editor: Dana Birksted-Breen

The New Library of Psychoanalysis

2010

Edited by DANA BIRKSTED-BREEN, Institute of Psychoanalysis, London
Assistant Editor, ALESSANDRA LEMMA

Foreign Rights Editor: STEPHANIE EBDON, Paterson Marsh Ltd.

Former Editors: DAVID TUCKETT, ELIZABETH BOTT SPILLIUS and SUSAN BUDD

The New Library of Psychoanalysis is published by Routledge in association with the Institute of Psychoanalysis, London. Its purpose is to facilitate a greater and more widespread appreciation of psychoanalysis and to provide a forum for increasing mutual understanding between psychoanalysts and those in other disciplines. The series also aims to make some of the work of Continental and other non-English speaking analysts more readily available to English-speaking readers, and to increase the interchange of ideas between British and American analysts.

THE NEW LIBRARY OF PSYCHOANALYSIS TEACHING SERIES

Series Editor: Dana Birksted-Breen

Assistant Editor: Alessandra Lemma

The New Library of Psychoanalysis Teaching Series extends the aims and achievements of The New Library of Psychoanalysis to those studying psychoanalysis and related fields such as the social sciences, philosophy, literature and the arts. Each text provides a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to the central subjects in psychoanalysis, expressing even the most complex psychoanalytic concepts in clear and simple language whilst avoiding over simplification.

Reading Klein

Margaret Rustin, Head of Child Psychotherapy, Tavistock Clinic, London, UK, and Michael Rustin, University of East London, UK

This book provides a biographical, chronological and thematic exploration of Klein's writings. Topics of discussion include:

- the psychological development of children
- the concept of unconscious phantasy
- the development of the superego.

Providing a clear and accessible guide to Klein's ideas and significance, this book will be essential reading to all those studying psychoanalysis on undergraduate, postgraduate and professional courses.

Reading French Psychoanalysis

Edited by Dana Birksted-Breen, and Sara Flanders, both Training and Supervising Analysts at the British Psychoanalytical Society, and Alain Gibeault, Training Analyst of the Paris Psychoanalytical Society

In this book, Dana Birksted-Breen and Sara Flanders of the British Psychoanalytical Society, and Alain

Gibeault of the Paris Psychoanalytical Society provide an overview of how French psychoanalysis has developed since Lacan.

Focusing primarily on the work of psychoanalysts from the French Psychoanalytical Association and from the Paris Psychoanalytical Society, the two British psychoanalysts view the evolution of theory as it appears to them from the outside, while the French psychoanalyst explains and elaborates from inside the French psychoanalytic discourse. Seminal and representative papers have been chosen to illuminate what is special about French thinking. A substantial general introduction argues in favour of the specificity of 'French psychoanalysis', tracing its early influences and highlighting specific contemporary developments.

Sections are made up of introductory material by Alain Gibeault, followed by illustrative papers in the following categories:

- the history of psychoanalysis in France
- forefathers and filiations
- the setting and process of psychoanalysis
- phantasy and representation
- the body and the drives
- masculine and feminine sexuality
- psychosis.

An excellent introduction to French psychoanalytical debate, Reading French Psychoanalysis sheds a complementary light on thinking that has evolved differently in England and North America.

LISTENING TO HANNA SEGAL

Her Contribution to Psychoanalysis

Jean-Michel Quinodoz, in private practice, Geneva, Switzerland

Jean-Michel Quinodoz provides the reader with a comprehensive overview of Segal's life, her clinical and theoretical work, and her contribution to psychoanalysis over the past sixty years by combining actual biographical and conceptual interviews with Hanna Segal herself or with colleagues who have listened to Segal in various contexts.

Listening to Hanna Segal explores both Segal's personal and professional histories, and the interaction between the two. The book opens with an autobiographical account of Segal's life, from her birth in Poland to her analysis with Melanie Klein in London where she became the youngest member of the British Psychoanalytical Society.

Quinodoz concludes by examining Segal's most recent contribution to psychoanalysis – exploring nuclear terror, psychotic anxieties, and group phenomena.

Throughout the interviews Segal speaks of her close relationships with prominent colleagues such as Klein, Rosenfeld, and Bion, making this book both a valuable contribution to the history of psychoanalysis and an indication of the evolution of psychoanalytic ideas over the past six decades.

Reading Freud

A Chronological Exploration of Freud's Writings

Jean-Michel Quinodoz, in private practice, Geneva, Switzerland

"A unique aid to the teaching and to the studying of Freud's writing. This book is both imaginative and very instructive, particularly in placing Freud's work in context... A real must for anybody seriously interested in Psychoanalysis."

- Anne-Marie Sandler, Training Psychoanalyst of the British Psychoanalytical Society, London, UK

Reading Freud provides an accessible outline of the whole of Freud's work from Studies in Hysteria through to An Outline of Psycho-Analysis. It succeeds in expressing even the most complex of Freud's theories in clear and simple language whilst avoiding over-simplification.

Each chapter concentrates on an individual text and includes valuable background information, relevant biographical and historical details, descriptions of Post-Freudian developments and a chronology of Freud's concepts.

Initiating Psychoanalysis

Edited by Bernard Reith, in private practice, Geneva, Switzerland, Sven Lagerlof, in private practice, Stockholm, Sweden, Penelope Crick, London Clinic of Psychoanalysis, UK, Mette Møller, Training Analyst, Danish Psychoanalytic Society, and Elisabeth Skale, President, Vienna Psychoanalytical Society

This book looks at psychoanalytic consultation and the decision to begin psychoanalysis. Chapters from a wide range of expert contributors offer different psychoanalytic approaches, from Freud to modern psychoanalysis, and focus on the first meeting with a new patient and the possibility of making an offer of psychoanalysis.

As such this book will be of great interest to psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and all those with an interest in the field of psychoanalysis.

Bion Today

Edited by Chris Mawson, Training and supervising analyst, British Psychoanalytical Society, UK

Bion Today introduces distinctive psychoanalytic contributions to show the ways in which distinguished analysts have explored and developed the ideas of Wilfred Bion.

Contributors demonstrate the ways in which they make use of Bion's ideas in their clinical work and areas of discussion include:

- Bion's critical approach to psychoanalysis
- Bion's transformations: art and psychoanalysis
- learning from Bion's legacy to groups.

This book will be of interest to all psychoanalysts and psychotherapists, as well as those with an interest in Bion's work.

The Psychotic Wavelength

A Psychoanalytic Perspective for Psychiatry

Richard Lucas, was a consultant psychiatrist at St. Ann's Hospital, London, UK, and a member of the British Psychoanalytical Society

"In this admirably lucid book Dr Richard Lucas demonstrates that psychoanalysis has much to contribute to the treatment of seriously disturbed and disturbing psychiatric patients... I sincerely hope it will be read by a wide, professional, national and international audience and will become essential reading for junior psychiatrists and nursing staff in particular." - Carine Minne, From the Preface

The Psychotic Wavelength provides a psychoanalytical framework for clinicians to use in everyday general psychiatric practice and discusses how psychoanalytic ideas can be of great value when used in the treatment of seriously disturbed and disturbing psychiatric patients with psychoses.

In this book, Richard Lucas suggests that when clinicians are faced with psychotic patients, the primary concern should be to make sense of what is happening during their breakdown. He refers to this as tuning into the psychotic wavelength, a process that allows clinicians to distinguish between, and appropriately address, the psychotic and non-psychotic parts of the personality. He argues that if clinicians can find and identify the psychotic wavelength, they can more effectively help the patient to come to terms with the realities of living with a psychotic disorder.

Divided into five parts and illustrated throughout with illuminating clinical vignettes, case examples and theoretical and clinical discussions, this book covers:

- the case for a psychoanalytical perspective on psychosis
- a historical overview of psychoanalytical theories for psychosis
- clinical evidence supporting the concept of a psychotic wavelength
- the psychotic wavelength in affective disorders
- implications for management and education.

The Psychotic Wavelength is an essential resource for anyone working with disturbed psychiatric patients. It will be of particular interest to junior psychiatrists and nursing staff and will be invaluable in helping to maintain treatment aims and staff morale.

CONTENTS: Minne, Preface. Part I: Making the Case for a Psychoanalytic Perspective on Psychosis. Introduction. The Medical Model. ## Melanie Klein in Berlin

Her First Psychoanalyses of Children

Claudia Frank, in private practice,
Stuttgart, Germany

Edited and with a Preface by Elizabeth Spillius, Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst, British Psychoanalytical Society

Translated by Sophie Leighton, and Sue Young

"This book is the work of a true scholar. And we all have much reason to thank Claudia for making us aware of the results of her meticulous comparison of Klein's published papers, her unpublished papers and her clinical treatment notes." - Elizabeth Spillius, From the Preface

In this book Claudia Frank discusses how Melanie Klein began to develop her psychoanalysis of children. Melanie Klein in Berlin:

Her First Psychoanalyses of Children offers a detailed comparative analysis of both published and unpublished material from the Melanie Klein archives.

By using previously unpublished studies, Frank demonstrates how Klein enriched the concept of negative transference and laid the basis for the innovations on both technique and theory that eventually led not only to changes in child analysis, but also to changes in the analysis of adults. Frank also uncovers the influence that this had on Klein's later theories of the paranoid-schizoid and depressive positions, and on her understanding of psychotic anxieties.

Melanie Klein in Berlin is the first text to make extensive use of Klein's unpublished papers, clinical notes, diaries and manuscripts. It will appeal to anyone involved in child psychoanalysis and the development of Melanie Klein's thinking.

CONTENTS: Spillius, Preface. Part I: Introduction. Melanie Klein's Psychoanalytic Clinical Work in Berlin. Grete: One of Melanie Klein's Very First Little Girl Patients in Berlin. Rita: Klein's Youngest Patient. The Beginning of the Play Technique: Inge and, Perhaps, Ernst? Erna: The Most Extensive Child Analysis of the Berlin Years. ## Doubt, Conviction and the Analytic Process

Selected Papers of Michael Feldman

Michael Feldman, Training Analyst,
British Psychoanalytical Society

Edited by Betty Joseph

In this profound and subtle study, a practising psychoanalyst explores the dynamics of the interaction between the patient and the analyst. Michael Feldman draws the reader into experiencing how the clinical interaction unfolds within a session. In doing so, he develops some of the implications of the important pioneering work of such analysts as Klein, Rosenfeld and Joseph, showing in fine detail some of the ways in which the patient feels driven not only to communicate to the analyst, in order to be understood by him, but also in order to affect him.

This collection of essays not only throws light on fascinating questions of technique, but also reflects on elements that are fundamental to psychoanalytic work. It is essential reading for practising psychoanalysts and those in training, as well as anyone with a general interest in the psychoanalytic relationship between the client and the therapist in the consulting room.

CONTENTS: Schafer, Preface. Joseph, Introduction. Feldman, The Oedipus Complex: Manifestations in the Inner World and the Therapeutic Situation. Splitting and Projective Identification. Projective Identification: The Analyst's Involvement. The Dynamics of Reassurance. The Illumination of History. Manifestation of the Death Instinct in the Consulting Room. ## Rediscovering Psychoanalysis

Thinking and Dreaming, Learning and Forgetting

Thomas H. Ogden, Director, Centre for the Advanced Study of the Psychoses, San Francisco, USA

Rediscovering Psychoanalysis demonstrates how, by attending to one's own idiosyncratic ways of thinking, feeling, and responding to patients, the psychoanalyst can develop a "style" of his or her own, a way of practicing that is a living process originating, to a large degree, from the personality and experience of the analyst.

Throughout this text, Thomas Ogden offers ways of revitalizing and reinventing the exchange between analyst and patient in each session, making this book essential reading for psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and other readers with an interest in psychoanalysis.

CONTENTS: Rediscovering Psychoanalysis. On Talking-As-Dreaming. On Psychoanalytic Supervision. On Teaching Psychoanalysis. Elements of Analytic Style: Bion's Clinical Seminars. Bion's Four Principles of Mental Functioning. Reading Loewald: Oedipus Reconceived. Reading Harold Searles.

Mind Works

Technique and Creativity in Psychoanalysis

Antonino Ferro, in private practice, Pavia, Italy

In Mind Works Antonino Ferro uses clinical material such as detailed reports of sessions, together with client's analytic histories, to develop Bion's original findings and illustrate complex concepts in the field of psychoanalytic technique.

Mind Works: Technique and Creativity in Psychoanalysis also suggests that dreaming is a fundamental moment in analytic work, and Ferro discusses how dreams can go beyond the present to become a continuous act of the mind in the waking state, allowing internal and external stimuli to be transformed into thoughts and emotions.

CONTENTS: Screenplays and Film Sets. Digressions on Interpretation. Psychosomatic Pathology or Metaphor: Problems of the Boundary. Homosexualities: A Field Ripe for Ploughing. A Model of the Mind and its Clinical Implications: How to Turn Back in Order to Move Forward. ## Psychoanalysis Comparable and Incomparable

The Evolution of a Method to Describe and Compare Psychoanalytic Approaches

David Tuckett, Roberto Basile, Dana Birksted-Breen, Tomas Bohm, Paul Denis, Antonino Ferro, Helmut Hinz, Arne Jemstedt, Paola Mariotti, and Johan Schubert

"This extraordinary volume describes the enormous progress made by an ongoing international scientific effort to help analysts identify a core of the psychoanalytic process that is compatible with the variety of theories and techniques that now exists in the international community... I know of no project more important than this one for the future of psychoanalysis." - Arnold M. Cooper, Weill Cornell Medical College, New York, USA

Psychoanalysis Comparable and Incomparable describes the rationale and ongoing development of a six year programme of highly original meetings conducted by the European Psychoanalytic Federation Working Party on Comparative Clinical Methods. The project comprises over seventy cases discussed by more than five hundred experienced psychoanalysts over the course of sixty workshops.

Authored by a group of leading European psychoanalysts, this book explores ways for psychoanalysts using different approaches to learn from each other when they present their work to fellow psychoanalysts, and provides tools for the individual practitioner to examine and improve his or her own approach.

CONTENTS: Birksted-Breen, Introductory Foreword. Tuckett, On Difference, Discussing Differences and Comparison: An Introduction. Denis, In Praise of Empiricism. Bohm, Before the Method, Underestimating the Problem and the Meeting in Prague. Jemstedt, The Sorrento Experience: Chaos Replaced by Too Much Structure. Hinz, Some Reflections on the Problems of Comparison and Difference in the Light of Doubts and Enthusiasms. Tuckett, Reflection and Evolution: Developing the 2-step Method. Birksted-Breen, Ferro, Mariotti, Work in Progress: Using the 2-step Method. Schubert, Experiences of Participating: Group Processes and Group Dynamics. Basile, Ferro, Some Surprises: A New Style for Case Discussion? Tuckett, Reflection and Comparison: Some Final Remarks. Tuckett, Appendix: The Origins of the EPF "New" Scientific Policy and Early History of the Working Party.

Time, Space and Phantasy

Rosine Jozef Perelberg, Training and Supervising Analyst, British Psychoanalytical Society, UK

"This is an exceptional volume that establishes lines of communication between colleagues from countries that are marked by different traditions. Through this, Rosine Perelberg makes her own original and creative contribution to psychoanalysis."

- André Green, Past President of the Société Psychanalytique de Paris and Past Vice President of the International Psychoanalytic Association

Time, Space and Phantasy examines the connections between time, space, phantasy and sexuality in clinical practice. It explores the subtleties of the encounter between patient and analyst, addressing how aspects of the patient's unconscious past are actualised in the present, producing new meanings that can be re-translated to the past.

Throughout this text, Perelberg draws together connections between time, mental space, and phantasy showing how time is constantly reshaped in the light of new events and experiences. This book will be of interest to psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, psychologists, and social workers.

CONTENTS: Part I: Theory and Clinical Practice. Time and Space in Psychoanalysis and Anthropology. Après Coup and Unconscious Phantasy. The Oracles in Dreams: The Past and the Future in the Present. "To Be Or Not To Be" – Here: A Woman's Denial of Time and Memory. Identity and Identification in the Analysis of a Violent Young Man. ## Constructions and the Analytic Field

History, Scenes and Destiny

Domenico Chianese, Psychiatrist, and Training Analyst, Rome, Italy

Constructions and the Analytic Field questions the relationship between psychoanalysis, history and literature. Does the analyst help the analysand construct a narrative, or is their task more of a historical reconstruction?

In seeking to answer this question, Domenico Chianese examines Freud's writing, beginning with 'Constructions in Analysis' and ending in 'Moses and Monotheism', as well as the impressions of analytic method reflected in contemporary writers such as Thomas Mann, and historical writings from both sides of the Atlantic. Drawing on vivid and persuasive clinical examples, he argues that psychoanalysis creates a 'scenic space' between analysand and analyst, a theatrical space wherein the cast of the patient's interior world enter and exit from the scene.

Drawing on the rich Italian psychoanalytic tradition, this original approach to the analytic field will be of interest to psychoanalysts, historians and literary experts.

CONTENTS: Chianese, Turning Over a New Leaf. Material Reality, Historical Reality, Psychic Reality. Psychoanalysis and History: An Interminable Dispute. ## Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow

Hanna Segal, Honary Member, British Psychoanalytical Society

Edited by Nicola Abel-Hirsch, in private practice, London, UK

Foreword by Roy Schafer

"I found this a fascinating and rewarding book to read, with a breadth, as well as depth, of content that is unusual in a psychoanalytic book, reflecting Hanna

Segal's commitment to a search for truth, which is not confined to psychic reality but encompasses social and political reality and conflict. I recommend it highly." - Golshad Ghiaci, Reflections Magazine

Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow presents a selection of papers written by Hanna Segal. The collection introduces the reader to a wide spectrum of insights into psychoanalysis, ranging from current thoughts on the nature of dreaming to new ideas about vision and disillusionment. Her long interest in factors affecting war is pursued in her examination of the psychotic factors, symbolic significance and psychological impact of the events of September the 11th, and the ensuing war on Iraq.

Encounters with Melanie Klein

Selected Papers of Elizabeth Spillius

Elizabeth Spillius, Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst of the British Psychoanalytical Society

Edited and with a Preface by Priscilla Roth, and Richard Rusbridger, both Training and Supervising Psychoanalysts of the British Psychoanalytical Society

"This is a fine book, both as a refreshing and illuminating account of Melanie Klein's thinking, and as an expression of Elizabeth Spillius's own attitudes to and work in psychoanalysis." - Michael Brearley, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

In Encounters with Melanie Klein: Selected Papers of Elizabeth Spillius the author argues that her two professions, anthropology and psychoanalysis, have much in common, and explains how her background in anthropology led her on to a profound involvement in psychoanalysis and her establishment as a leading figure amongst Kleinian analysts.

Spillius describes what she regards as the important features of Kleinian thought and discusses the research she has carried out in Melanie Klein's unpublished archive, including Klein's views on projective identification.

Spillius's own clinical ideas make up the last part of the book with papers on envy, phantasy, technique, the negative therapeutic reaction and otherness. Her writing has a clarity which is very particular to her; she conveys complicated ideas in a most straightforward manner, well illustrated with pertinent clinical material.

CONTENTS: Roth, Rusbridger, Preface. Spillius, General Introduction. Part I: From Anthropology to Psychoanalysis. Anthropology and Psychoanalysis: A Personal Concordance. ## Feeling the Words

Neuropsychanalytic Understanding of Memory and the Unconscious

Mauro Mancia, Italian Psychoanalytical Society

"This book is notable for being stimulating and comprehensible to both the experienced psychoanalytic clinician as well as to anyone with an interest in the work of Freud and his followers, and the state of psychoanalytic research today." - Arnold Cooper, From the Foreword

Feeling the Words incorporates a thorough review of essential psychoanalytic concepts, a clear critical history of analytical ideas and an assessment of the contribution neuroscience has to offer.

Feeling the Words offers an original perspective on the connection between memory and the unconscious. It will be welcomed by all psychoanalysts interested in investigating new ways of working with patients.

CONTENTS: Cooper, Foreword. Introduction: Beyond Freud: The Twilight of Oedipus and the Neurosciences' Contribution to Psychoanalysis.

Part I: Memory and the Unconscious. Memory Between Neuroscience and Psychoanalysis. Implicit Memory and Unrepressed Unconscious: Their Role in Creativity, in the Transference and in Dreams. ## Projected Shadows

Psychoanalytic Reflections on the Representation of Loss in European Cinema

Edited by Andrea Sabbadini, Fellow of the Institute of Psychoanalysis, London, UK
 Foreword by Glen O. Gabbard

"The volume is a state-of-the-art account of where we are today with the study of cinema through a psychoanalytic lens.

Sabbadini has brought together a group of gifted authors who show that methodologies continue to evolve, while, at the same time, we can still mine the ore of the time honoured traditions." - Glen O. Gabbard, From the Foreword

Projected Shadows presents a new collection of essays exploring films from a psychoanalytic perspective, focusing specifically on the representation of loss in European cinema. This theme is discussed in its many aspects, including: loss of hope and innocence, of youth, of consciousness, of freedom and loss through death.

Projected Shadows aims to deepen the ongoing constructive dialogue between psychoanalysis and film. Andrea Sabbadini has assembled a remarkable number of internationally renowned contributors, both academic film scholars and psychoanalysts from a variety of cultural backgrounds, who use an array of contemporary methodologies to apply psychoanalytic thinking to film.

CONTENTS: Gabbard, Foreword. Sabbadini, Introduction. Kline, The Night of Melancholia and the Daylight of Mourning: Anne Fontaine's Comment j'ai tué mon père. Goisis, Quest for a Lost Mother: Alina Marazzi's Un'ora sola ti vorrei. Wigoder, Berman, Is There Light at the End of the Tunnel? Keren Yedaya's Or (Mon Tresor). Costantini, Golinelli, The Anorexic Paradox: Matteo Garrone's First Love. Zwiebel, Reparation and the Empathic Other: Christian Petzold's Wolfsburg. Sabbadini, The Talking Cure From Freud to Almodóvar: Hable con ella. Portuges, Intergenerational Transmission: The Holocaust in Central European Cinema. ## The Many Voices of Psychoanalysis

Roger Kennedy, Cassel Hospital, Richmond, UK

"Kennedy's work demonstrates that psychoanalysis continues to have much to offer to individuals, to families, and to the societies and cultures within which they are embedded." - Paul M. Brinich, PsycCRITIQUES

as a practicing psychoanalyst, providing a fascinating insight into the process of development of psychoanalytic identity.

The introduction puts the papers into context, charting the development of the author's practice and understanding of psychoanalysis and his position as part of the British Independent tradition. The intention of the chapters is to address the 'many voices' of psychoanalysis – the many roles and approaches a psychoanalyst may take, while adhering to the established ideas of psychoanalysis. The author takes into account the various influences which shape the psychoanalytic voice, drawing on literature, philosophy and sociology as well as analytic ideas.

This book will be of use not only to practicing psychoanalysts, but also to psychoanalytic psychotherapists and other mental health workers.

CONTENTS: Introduction. Part I: Theoretical Voices. Freedom to Relate. The Human Aspects of the Psychoanalytic Relationship. Aspects of Consciousness – One Voice or Many? On Subjective Organisations. Restoring History to Psychoanalysis. Part II: Clinical Voices. Handling the Dual Aspect of the Transference. A Severe Form of Breakdown in Communication in the Psychoanalysis of an Ill Adolescent. Bearing the Unbearable – Working with the Abused Mind. Becoming a Subject – Some Theoretical and Clinical Issues. Part III: Other Voices. The Internal Drama – Psychoanalysis and the Theatre. Some Aspects of Group Therapy with Psychotic Patients. Psychosis and the Family. Work of the Day. A Psychoanalyst in the Family Court.

Recovery of the Lost Good Object

Eric Brenman, Senior Training Analyst and Supervisor, British Psychoanalytical Society

Edited and Introduced by Gigliola Fornari Spoto

Recovery of the Lost Good Object brings together the hugely influential papers and seminars of Eric Brenman, revealing his impact on the development of psychoanalysis and allowing a better understanding of his distinctive voice amongst Post-Kleinian analysts.

Gathered together for the first time in one volume, Eric Brenman's papers give the reader a unique insight into the development of his clinical and theoretical thinking. They highlight many issues which are relevant to the present debate about psychoanalytic technique.

The second half of the book documents three of the clinical seminars and covers the transgenerational transmission of trauma, the analysis of borderline pathology and the psychoanalytical approach to severely deprived patients.

CONTENTS: Spoto, Introduction. The Narcissism of the Analyst: Its Effect in Clinical Practice. The Value of Reconstruction in Adult Psychoanalysis. Separation: A Clinical Problem. Matters of Life and Death – Real and Assumed. Cruelty and Narrowmindedness. Hysteria. Meaning and Meaningfulness: Touching the Untouchable. The Recovery of the Good Object Relationship: The Conflict with the Superego. De Masi, Introduction to the Clinical Seminars. Unbearable Pain. Deprivation and Violence. Transgenerational Transmission of Trauma.

Psychoanalysis and Religion in the 21st Century

Competitors or Collaborators?

Edited by David M. Black, in private practice, London, UK

"What makes this book remarkable is the even-handed nature of the discussion and the wide variety of standpoints from which the 14 contributors approach their chosen topics... this collection is packed with stimulating contributions." - Christopher MacKenna, British Association of Psychotherapists, London, UK

Freud described religion as the universal obsessional neurosis, and uncompromisingly rejected it in favour of "science." Ever since, there has been the assumption that psychoanalysts are hostile to religion. Yet, from the beginning, individual analysts have questioned Freud's blanket rejection of religion.

In this book, David Black brings together contributors from a wide range of schools and movements to discuss the issues. They bring a fresh perspective to the subject of religion and psychoanalysis.

CONTENTS: Black, Introduction. Part I: The Possibility of Religious Truth. Blass, Beyond Illusion: Psychoanalysis and the Question of Religious Truth.  Davids, "Render Unto Caesar What is Caesar's": Speculations on the Interface Between Psychoanalysis and Religion. Black, "Positions" as Grades of Consciousness: The Case for a Contemplative Position. Part II: Religious Stories that Tell Psychological Truth. Britton, Emancipation from the Superego: A Clinical Study of the Book of Job. Millar, The Christmas Story: A Psychoanalytic Enquiry. Part III: The Nature and Functioning of Religious Experiences. Parsons, Ways of Transformation. Rubin, Psychoanalysis and Spirituality. Grier, Reflections on the Phenomenon of Adoration in Relationships, Both Human and Divine. Wright, Preverbal Experience and the Intuition of the Sacred. Symington, Religion: The Guarantor of Civilization. Part IV: Echoes Between Psychoanalysis and Specific Religious Traditions. Frosh, Psychoanalysis and Judaism. Epstein, The Structure of No-structure: Winnicott's Concept of Unintegration and the Buddhist Notion of No-self. Cunningham, Vedanta and Psychoanalysis. Bomford, A Simple Question?

Psychoanalysis as Therapy and Storytelling

Antonino Ferro, in private practice, Pavia, Italy

Translated by Philip Slotkin

Psychoanalysis as Therapy and Storytelling examines psychoanalysis from two perspectives – as a cure for psychic suffering, and as a series of stories told between patient and analyst.

Antonino Ferro uses numerous clinical examples to investigate how narration and interpretation are interconnected in the analytic session.

Psychoanalytic clinicians and theoreticians alike will find the innovative approach to the analytic session described here of great interest.

CONTENTS: Introduction. Narrations and Interpretations. Telling Ourselves Stories with, Perhaps, a Grain of Truth. In Praise of Row C: Psychoanalysis as a Particular Form of Literature. Sexuality as a Narrative Genre or Dialect in the Analyst's Consulting Room. The Waking Dream: Theoretical and Clinical Aspects. Delusion and Hallucination. Characters in Literature and in the Analyst's Consulting Room. Notes on Acting Out, the Countertransference and the Transgenerational Field. Child and Adolescent Analysis: Similarities and Differences that Mask an Underlying Unity. Play: Characters, Narrations and Interpretations.

This Art of Psychoanalysis

Dreaming Undreamt Dreams and Interrupted Cries

Thomas H. Ogden, Director, Centre for the Advanced Study of the Psychoses, San Francisco, USA

"This Art of Psychoanalysis is a fascinating book, one of the most original psychoanalytic works in recent years." - Emanuel Berman, University of Haifa, Israel, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

This Art of Psychoanalysis offers a unique perspective on psychoanalysis that features a new way of conceptualizing the role of dreaming in human psychology.

Thomas Ogden's thinking has been at the cutting edge of psychoanalysis for more than 25 years. In this volume, he builds on the work of Freud, Klein, Winnicott, and Bion, and explores the idea that all human psychopathology is a manifestation of a breakdown of the individual's capacity to dream his experience. The investigation into the role of the analyst in participating psychologically in the patient's dreaming is illustrated throughout with elegant and absorbing accounts of his own clinical work, providing a fascinating insight into the analyst's experience.

This engaging book succeeds in conveying not just a set of techniques but a way of being with patients that is humane and compassionate. It will be of great interest to psychoanalysts, psychotherapists and other mental health professionals.

The Telescoping of Generations

Listening to the Narcissistic Links Between Generations

Haydée Faimberg, Training and Supervising Analyst, Paris Psychoanalytical Society, France

"The Telescoping of Generations is a book about analytic listening, listening to the unspoken motives of previous generations. Haydée Faimberg brings a novel and unique perspective to the practice of psychoanalysis." - Arnold H. Modell, Training Analyst, Boston Psychoanalytic Institute and Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, Harvard Medical School, USA

The Telescoping of Generations is an original perspective on the transmission of narcissistic links between generations. This attention to unconscious transmission gives fresh understanding of the psychic consequences of experiences such as genocide and terrorism.

Reviving classic psychoanalytical concepts with fresh meaning, Haydée Faimberg demonstrates how narcissistic links that pass between generations can be unfolded in the intimacy of the session, through engagement with the patient's private language. The surprising clinical cases described in this book led the author to recognise the analyst's narcissistic resistances to hearing what the patient does say, and what the patient cannot say.

Key Ideas for a Contemporary Psychoanalysis

Misrecognition and Recognition of the Unconscious

André Green, Member of the Paris Psychoanalytical Society and Honorary Member of the British Psychoanalytical Society

Translated by Andrew Weller

André Green attempts the complex task of identifying and examining the key ideas for a contemporary psychoanalytic practice.

This undertaking is motivated both by the need for an outline of the evolution of psychoanalysis since Freud's death, and by the hope of tackling the fragmentation which has led to the current 'crisis of psychoanalysis'.

In three sections covering the theoretical and practical aspects of psychoanalysis, and analysing the current state of the field, André Green provides a stimulating overview of the principal concepts that have guided his work.

This unique contemporary perspective on the psycho-analytic enterprise will fascinate all those with an interest in the problems that face the field and the opportunities for its future development.

Glacial Times

A Journey Through the World of Madness

Salomon Resnik, Psychoanalyst,
Paris and Venice

Translated by David Alcorn

"The reader is guided on a richly intuitive tour... the articulated gems of description by which [the author] conveys the psychotic experience have a powerful and often unexpected impact on the reader." - Bob Hinshelwood, Psychology and Psychotherapy: Theory, Research and Practice

In Glacial Times, Salomon Resnik brings together various facets of his work as a psychoanalyst and psychiatrist, working in both the private sector and in institutional settings, to provide a careful summary of a lifetime of clinical work.

Drawing on a wide range of psychoanalytic, philosophical and literary sources, and vignettes from the author's extensive clinical experience, this book brings the subject of psychosis to life and demonstrates how the study of psychoanalysis and psychosis forces us to confront fundamental ontological questions.

This synthesis of over fifty years of experience as a psychoanalyst and psychiatrist treating psychotic patients will fascinate anyone working in these fields.

Seeds of Illness, Seeds of Recovery

The Genesis of Suffering and the Role of Psychoanalysis

Antonino Ferro, in private practice,
Pavia, Italy

Foreword by Thomas Ogden

"Ferro's writing skills... are like those of a great musician who can allow himself

the virtuosities while never for a moment forgetting, or lessening, the technical clarity of his performance." - Anna Ferruta, Italian language edition of The International Journal of Psychoanalysis Illustrated with richly detailed clinical vignettes, Seeds of Illness, Seeds of Recovery offers a fascinating investigation into the origins, modes and treatment of physical suffering.

Antonino Ferro provides a clear account of his conception of the way the mind works, his interpretation of the analytic understanding of psychopathology, his reconceptualization of the therapeutic process, and implications for analytic technique derived from his view of the therapeutic action of psychoanalysis.

This highly original approach to the problem of therapeutic factors in psychoanalysis will be of interest to all practising and training psychoanalysts and psychotherapists.

The Quiet Revolution in American Psychoanalysis

Selected Papers of Arnold M. Cooper

Arnold M. Cooper, Weill-Cornell Medical College, and Columbia University,
New York, USA

Introduced and Edited
by Elizabeth L. Auchincloss

"Dr Arnold Cooper teases out the truly creative theoretical and clinical ideas to be found in the different analytic approaches that currently compete for psychoanalysts' attention... a valuable book!"

- Roy Schafer, Columbia University Center for Psychoanalytic Training and Research, USA

This book brings together for the first time in one volume selected papers by one of the leading contemporary intellectual figures in the field of psychoanalysis, Arnold M. Cooper. Cooper's own contributions to psychoanalytic clinical theory have changed our understanding of work with patients to include a greater appreciation of narcissistic and pre-Oedipal themes in development and of the human encounter embedded in the psychoanalytic situation.

The Work of Psychic Figurability

Mental States Without Representation

César Botella, and Sára Botella, both Psychoanalysts, in private practice, France
Introduction by Michael Parsons

On the basis of their experience of analytic practice and illustrated by fascinating clinical material, César and Sára Botella set out to address what they call the work of figurability as a way of outlining the passage from the unrepresentable to the representational. They develop a conception of psychic functioning, which is essentially grounded in the inseparability of the negative, trauma, and the emergence of intelligibility, and describe the analyst's work of figurability arising from the formal regression of his thinking during the session, which proves to be the best and perhaps the only means of access to this state beyond the mnemonic trace which is memory without recollection.

The Work of Psychic Figurability argues that taking this work into consideration at the heart of the theory of practice is indispensable. Without this, the analytic process is too often in danger of slipping into interminable analyses, into negative therapeutic reactions, or indeed, into disappointing successive analyses.

In Pursuit of Psychic Change

The Betty Joseph Workshop

Edited by Edith Hargreaves, British Psychoanalytical Society, UK, and Arturo Varchevker, in private practice, London, UK

"The book begins with an admirable introduction by the editors... The quality of these papers emerging from the Betty Joseph Workshop is outstanding. The chapters are full of case material that merits close study for their intimate, detailed and theorized examination of the therapeutic relationship." - Jean Arundale, British Journal of Psychotherapy

The members of the Betty Joseph Workshop have provided major contributions to psychoanalytic thinking since the meeting's inception in 1962. This book is a celebration of Betty Joseph's work, and the work of a group of analysts who have joined her to discuss obstacles to psychic change in psychoanalytic treatment.

The history of psychoanalysis is one of an on-going struggle to reach a new understanding of the human psyche and develop more effective methods of treatment. In Pursuit of Psychic Change reflects this tradition – discussions of each contribution by other members of the group provide an in depth exploration of the merits and limitations of a developing analytic technique, in the hope of achieving true psychic change.

The Couch and the Silver Screen

Psychoanalytic Reflections on European Cinema

Edited by Andrea Sabbadini, Fellow of the Institute of Psychoanalysis, London, UK

Foreword by Laura Mulvey

"This is a book which will fascinate all cinema lovers and take its place among the many valuable writings on applied psychoanalysis in Europe... It's sheer variety... makes for a fascinating dialogue between the authors and the topics they deal with."

- Serge Frisch, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

The Couch and the Silver Screen is a collection of original contributions which explore European cinema from psychoanalytic perspectives. Both classic and contemporary films are presented and analysed by a variety of authors, including leading cinema historians and theorists, psycho-analysts with a specific expertise in the interpretation of films, as well as the filmmakers themselves. This composite approach offers a fascinating insight into the world of cinema.

The Couch and the Silver Screen is illustrated with stills throughout and Andrea Sabbadini's introduction provides a theoretical and historical context for the current state of psychoanalytic studies of films.

The Importance of Fathers

A Psychoanalytic Re-evaluation

Judith Trowell, Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, Tavistock Clinic, London, UK, and Alicia Etchegoyen, Consultant Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist, Chelsea and Westminster Hospital, London, UK

Foreword by Anton Obholzer

It is widely acknowledged that children need structure, security, stability and attachment to develop and flourish, and that the father is an important part of this.

Issues such as high divorce rates, new family structures, increased mobility, women's liberation and contraception are very common in society. This book sets out to explore what has happened to men and to fathers during all these changes and transitions. Judith Trowell and Alicia Etchegoyen, along with an array of renowned contributors, consider the importance of fathers in various situations.

It is argued that the father is important, not only to support the main carer (usually the mother) but also to provide a caring, thinking, comfortable, confident presence.

The Violence of Interpretation

From Pictogram to Statement

Piera Aulagnier

Preface by Joyce MacDougall, and Nathalie Zaltzman

Translated by Alan Sheridan

"The single most important contribution to the psychoanalytic understanding of psychosis published during the last twenty years."

- Otto F. Kernberg, President, International Psychoanalytical Association

Published in English for the first time, this is a seminal work by an original and creative analytical thinker. Piera Aulagnier's The Violence of Interpretation bridges the work of Winnicott and Lacan, putting forward a theory of psychosis based on children's early experiences.

2001: 280pp.

Ordinary People and Extra-Ordinary Protections

A Post-Kleinian Approach to the Treatment of Primitive Mental States

Judith L. Mitrani, Psychoanalytic Centre of California and the Los Angeles Institute and Society for Psychoanalytic Studies, USA

Foreword by James S. Grotstein

"Judith Mitrani's latest work beautifully illuminates some incompletely explored areas of psychoanalytic thinking... Throughout this work we become impressed with the presence of a versatile and innovative observer, thinker, clinician, and integrator... Dr Mitrani's is a fresh, valuable, and most welcome voice in psychoanalysis."

- James S. Grotstein, North American Vice President, International Psychoanalytical Association, USA

Many people come to analysis appearing quite 'ordinary' on the surface. However, once below that surface, we frequently come into contact with something quite unexpected: 'extra-ordinary protections' created to keep at bay any awareness of deeply traumatic happenings occurring at some point in life. Judith Mitrani investigates the development and the function of these protections.

The Dove that Returns, The Dove that Vanishes

Paradox and Creativity in Psychoanalysis

Michael Parsons, in private practice, London, UK

"... a book of clarity and poignancy... This is a very highly recommended book both because of the importance of Parsons's ideas, and because of his engaging and moving manner of telling a story."

- Steven Cooper, Journal of the American Psychoanalytic Association

The nature of psychoanalysis seems contradictory – deeply personal, subjective and intuitive, yet requiring systematic theory and principles of technique.

In The Dove that Returns, The Dove that Vanishes, Michael Parsons explores the tension of this paradox. As they respond to it, and struggle to sustain creatively, analysts discover their individual identities. The work of outstanding clinicians such as Marion Milner and John Klauber is examined in detail. The reader also encounters oriental martial arts, Greek tragedy, the landscape painting of John Constable, a Winnicottian theory of creativity and a discussion of the significance of play in psychoanalysis. From such varied topics there evolves a deepening apprehension of the nature of clinical experience.

Illustrated throughout, The Dove that Returns, The Dove that Vanishes will prove valuable to those in the field of psychoanalysis, and to those in the arts and humanities who are interested in contemporary psychoanalytic thinking.

The Bi-Personal Field

Experiences in Child Analysis

Antonino Ferro, in private practice, Pavia, Italy

Introduction by Elizabeth Bott Spillius

In The Bi-Personal Field, Antonino Ferro sets out his new conceptual system for analysis, considering not only the inner world of the patient but the continued interaction of that world with the inner world of the analyst.

The book takes a fresh look at the main aspects of theory and technique in psychoanalysis in the light of Kleinian developments. It reflects the drastic changes due to the thinking of Bion.

The Fabric of Affect in the Psychoanalytic Discourse

André Green, Member of the Paris Psychoanalytical Society and Honorary Member of the British Psychoanalytical Society, and winner of the 1995 Sigourney Award

Translated by Alan Sheridan

"This book is a testament to André Green's passionate search for the truth in Freud's unanswered questions about affect."

- Henri F. Smith, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

The Fabric of Affect in the Psychoanalytic Discourse is a seminal work on one of the most neglected topics in psychoanalysis, that of affect. Originally published in French as Le Discours Vivant, and by one of the most distinguished living analysts.

1999: 400pp.

The Dead Mother

The Work of André Green

Edited by Gregorio Kohon, in private practice, London, UK

Preface by R. Horacio Etchegoyen

"Readers will find this a valuable book – for the lively dialogue between Green and Kohon... and for the glimpse of the walls in the present psychoanalytic scene, which Green has both run up against and surmounted." - Edna O'Shaughnessy, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

The Dead Mother brings together original essays in honour of André Green. Written by distinguished psychoanalysts, the collection develops the theme of his most famous paper, and describes the value of the dead mother to other areas of clinical interest: psychic reality, borderline phenomena, passions and identification.

1999: 248pp.

Psychoanalysis on the Move

The Work of Joseph Sandler

Edited by Peter Fonagy, University College, London, UK, Arnold M. Cooper, Weill-Cornell Medical College, and Columbia University, New York, USA, and Robert S. Wallerstein, University of San Francisco School of Medicine, USA, winner of the 1991 Sigourney Award

"The book should make interesting reading for psychoanalysts, psychotherapists, and all those who wish to know more about one of the most creative figures in psychoanalysis of the past few decades."

- The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

Psychoanalysis on the Move provides a comprehensive and accessible overview of Sandler's contribution to the development of psychoanalysis. The contributors trace the development of the main themes and achievements of Sandler's work, in particular his focus on combining psychoanalytic theory and clinical practice.

Pb: 978-0-415-20549-8: £23.95/$42.50

On Bearing Unbearable States of Mind

Ruth Riesenber-Malcolm, in private practice, London, UK

Edited and introduced by Priscilla Roth, Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst of the British Psychoanalytical Society

On Bearing Unbearable States of Mind provides clear guidance on how the analyst can encourage the patient to communicate the quality of their often intolerably painful states of mind. Employing extensive and detailed clinical examples, and addressing important areas of Kleinian theory, the author examines the problems that underlie severe pathology.

1999: 216pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-20519-1: £23.95/$42.50

Psychoanalytic Understanding of Violence and Suicide

Edited by Rosine Jozef Perelberg, Training and Supervising Analyst, British Psychoanalytical Society, UK, and Co-winner of the 1991 Sacerdoti prize for her paper "What Can You Possibly Learn From Babies?"

Foreword by Leonard Shengold

Preface by Ronald Britton

"Perelberg has produced a book of the greatest topical importance to anyone involved in psychoanalysis. The review of the literature is by far the best on the subject. The various chapters of this most skillfully edited book are beautifully written... It should be standard reading for many years to come." - Joseph Sandler, Late Professor Emeritus in Psychoanalysis, University College London, UK

This pioneering book presents a collection of case studies on the intensive psychoanalytic treatment of patients who have committed serious acts of violence against themselves or others. Each detailed clinical account demonstrates the effectiveness of the psychoanalytic treatment and furthers our understanding of the nature of violence.

The Psychoanalytic Understanding of Violence and Suicide also contains a comprehensive review of the existing literature on aggression and violence from America, England and France, presenting major themes contained in this literature which will be of interest to all those working with violent and suicidal patients.

1998: 208pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-19932-2: £23.95/$42.50

Belief and Imagination Explorations in Psychoanalysis

Ronald Britton, in private practice, London, UK

"Belief and Imagination is a pleasure to read and a reward to study. It confirms the author's status as one of the foremost contributors to modern psychoanalytic theory and practice. It is a clear and insightful book rich in clinical, theoretical, and applied psychoanalytic wisdom." - Howard Levine, Journal of the American Psychoanalytic Association

Belief and Imagination brings together Ronald Britton's writing on these subjects over the last 15 years, exploring the concepts from a Kleinian perspective. As well as exploring the various aspects of belief encountered in analysis, Britton also examines the relationship between psychic reality and fictional writing, and the ways in which belief, imagination and reality are explored in the works of Wordsworth, Rilke, Milton and Blake.

1998: 240pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-19438-9: £23.95/$42.50

A Mind of One's Own A Psychoanalytic View of Self and Object

Robert Caper, Psychoanalytic Center of California and UCLA School of Medicine, USA

Preface by Betty Joseph

"Caper writes with clarity and lightness of touch synthesising ideas and untangling confusions in a delightfully direct style free from fluff or wordiness." - P. Garvey, Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

This collection of papers, written over the last six years by Robert Caper, focuses on the importance of distinguishing self from object in psychological development. Robert Caper demonstrates the importance this psychological disentanglement plays in the therapeutic effect of psychoanalysis.

1998: 176pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-19912-4: £22.95/$42.50

A History of Child Psychoanalysis

Claudine Geissmann, University of Bordeaux, and in private practice, France, and the late Pierre Geissmann

Forewords by Serge Lebovici, Anne-Marie Sandler, and Hanna Segal

"This is a fascinating account from which the reader will have to draw his own conclusion." - Journal of the British Association of Psychotherapists

Claudine and Pierre Geissmann trace the history and development of child analysis over the last century and assess the contributions made by pioneers of the discipline, whose efforts to expand its theoretical foundations led to conflict between schools of thought, most notably to the rift between Anna Freud and Melanie Klein.

1997: 368pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-11296-3: £32.50/$59.95

Early Freud and Late Freud

Reading Anew Studies on Hysteria and Moses and Monotheism

Ilse Grubrich-Simitis, in private practice, Frankfurt, Germany, and winner of the 1998 Sigourney Award

Translated by Philip Slotkin

"For some two decades, Ilse Grubrich-Simitis has been a leading – probably the leading – student of Freud... In addition to her impeccable scholarship, she brings to bear a solid quantity of good sense which invites, almost compels, assent." - Peter Gay, Harvard University, USA

Ilse Grubrich-Simitis, well-known as a Freud scholar and editor of Freud's works, has long advocated a return to his original texts in order to comprehend fully the power and innovative force of his theories. In Early Freud and Late Freud she examines the earliest psychoanalytic book, Studies on Hysteria, which Freud wrote together with Breuer, and Moses and Monotheism, Freud's last book.

1997: 136pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-14844-3: £22.95/$42.50

Winner of the Prix Psychologie 1995, awarded by the *Journal des Psychologues!

Emotional Vertigo

Between Anxiety and Pleasure

Danielle Quinodoz, in private practice, Geneva, Switzerland, and winner of the 1989 Sacerdoti prize for her paper, "Le vertige et la relation d'objet"

Translated by Arnold Pomerans

Foreword by Alain Gibeault

"This is a rich, stimulating and generous book which will enrich the thought and clinical practice of clinicians from the newly qualified to the highly experienced." - Francois Sirois, Canadian Review of Psychoanalysis

In this unique, prize-winning study Danielle Quinodoz unravels the unconscious significance of the feelings of vertigo which arise in situations where there is no immediate physical danger of falling and no organic cause. She traces the origins of such emotional vertigo to inner anxieties around separation which are expressed somatically at different levels according to the level of anxiety.

1997: 216pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-14836-8: £22.95/$42.50

Psychoanalysis, Literature and War Papers 1972-1995

Hanna Segal, Honary Member, British Psychoanalytical Society, and winner of the 1992 Sigourney Award

Edited and Introduced by John Steiner

A past mistress at capturing the vitality of the clinical session on the page, Segal shows how the same conflicts between life and death instincts, fantasy and reality, are experienced in the consulting room, reflected in literature, and played out by nations in their attitudes to war. Edited by John Steiner, this collection of writings provides a rich source of clinical insights and challenging theory for all analysts practising today.

1997: 192pp.

.....
for further books by Hanna Segal see pages 6, 16

Hope

A Shield in the Economy of Borderline States

Anna Potamianou, in private practice, Greece

Translated by Philip Slotkin

"Theoretically interesting and clinically helpful. The author vividly conveys the borderline patient's world of chaos and unthinkable threats." - Journal of the British Association for Psychotherapists

Most human beings see hope as a positive benefit, but Anna Potamianou shows how in the 'borderline' patient it can become an omnipotent means of denying reality. She gives both clinical and literary examples of how this happens and goes on to discuss the connection between hope and desire for these patients.

1996: 128pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-12177-4: £23.95/$42.50

Michael Balint

Object Relations Pure and Applied

Harold Stewart, in private practice, London, UK

With chapters by Andrew Elder, and Robert Gosling

"Provides a stimulating and admirably clear account of Michael Balint's contribution to psychoanalysis and applied psychoanalysis as well as painting an absorbing picture of Balint himself." - British Journal of Psychotherapy

Whilst Michael Balint's applied work is widely known, many of his theoretical contributions have been incorporated into everyday analysis without due recognition of their source. In this account of his thinking, Harold Stewart evaluates the extent of Balint's contribution to psychoanalysis and firmly re-establishes his place within the development of Object Relations theory.

Michael Balint: Object Relations, Pure and Applied brings alive Balint's teaching and practice and demonstrates the relevance of his theories to many of the problematic issues in current analytic practice.

1996: 160pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-14466-7: £23.95/$42.50

What Do Psychoanalysts Want?

The Problem of Aims in Psychoanalytic Therapy

Joseph Sandler, Late Emeritus Professor of Psychoanalysis, University College London, UK, and Winner of the 1995 Sigourney Award, and Anna Ursula Dreher, in private practice, Frankfurt, Germany

Foreword by Arnold M. Cooper

"The material has clearly been distilled from a wealth of information and research to provide a work that is both rich, yet digestible – a tribute to the authors' impressive depth of knowledge, breadth of experience and flair for economy." - British Journal of Psychotherapy

In What Do Psychoanalysts Want? the authors look at the way psychoanalysts have defined analysis on both sides of the Atlantic, decade by decade, from Freud down to the present day, by decade.

1995: 160pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-13515-3: £23.95/$42.50

Life, Sex and Death

Selected Writings of William Gillespie

Edited and Introduced by Michael Sinason, member of the British Psychoanalytical Society

"Not only was Gillespie an innovator and discoverer, but a pioneer investigator whose work encompasses the entire history of accomplishments of psychoanalytic thought on perversions."

- Charles Socarides

The first edited collection of twelve of Gillespie's key papers. With an overview by Charles Socarides, an eminent psychoanalyst in the field of perversion and a biographical introduction by the editor, Michael Sinason.

1995: 224pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-12805-6: £23.95/$42.50

Psychic Retreats

Pathological Organizations in Psychotic, Neurotic and Borderline Patients

John Steiner, Consultant Psychotherapist, Tavistock Clinic, London, UK

Foreword by Roy Schafer

"All practitioners at times struggle with the pathologically organised mind and will be relieved and heartened by this book."

- British Journal of Psychotherapy

Writing with practising psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists in mind, John Steiner draws on new developments in Kleinian psychoanalysis to enable analysts to understand the problems of treating severely ill patients.

1993: 176pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-09924-0: £22.95/$42.50

Understanding Mental Objects

Meir Perlow, Senior Clinical Psychologist, Eitanium Psychiatric Hospital, Jerusalem

Foreword by Joseph Sandler

"There is little doubt that this study represents a major contribution to the field."

- Joseph Sandler, Late Professor Emeritus in Psychoanalysis, University College London, UK

In this definitive guide to the subject, Meir

Perlow looks in detail at how the various psychoanalytic schools of thought have conceptualised mental objects. He lays bare the major theoretical and clinical issues that underlie the concepts and draws out some working definitions which will have practical application for the clinician.

1995: 224pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-12179-8: £23.95/$42.50

Unconscious Logic

An Introduction to Matte-Blanco's Bi-Logic and its Uses

Eric Rayner, now retired, formerly a psychoanalyst, in private practice

"Now at last we have a good introduction to Matte-Blanco's ideas written by Eric Rayner which makes this very different psychoanalytic perspective relatively easy to understand." - British Journal of Psychotherapy

Eric Rayner

Matte-Blanco's theories are among the most remarkable and also the least understood in the history of psychoanalysis. Eric Rayner has written an incisive and much needed introduction to his work, using vivid clinical examples to explain key concepts.

1995: 192pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-12726-4: £23.95/$42.50

The Gender Conundrum

Contemporary Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Femininity and Masculinity

Edited and Introduced by Dana Birksted-Breen, Winner of the 1995 Sacerdoti Prize for her paper "Penis, Phallus and Mental Space"

"The virtue of the book... lies in the exhaustive, and thoughtful background research undertaken by Dana Breen. The scope of the research lays the ground for her judicious selection and imaginative organisation of contemporary psychoanalytic writings." - Cyril Couve, Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy

In The Gender Conundrum, Dana Birksted-Breen brings together psychoanalytic papers on the subject of femininity and masculinity from the very different British, French, and American perspectives. This collection of seminal papers provides a classic reference text for psychoanalysis and gender studies.

1993: 312pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-09164-0: £23.95/$42.50

for further books by Dana Birksted-Breen see pages 2, 5

The Dream Discourse Today

Edited and Introduced by Sara Flanders

"I would happily use [this] book as prescribed reading for a series of postgraduate seminars with psychotherapy students. There is also plenty for the practising therapist to dip into and puzzle over." - British Journal of Psychotherapy

The Dream Discourse Today is the first historical and theoretical survey of its subject and the classic nature of the papers it includes will make it a first-class work of reference for psychoanalysts and psychotherapists of all schools, whether in practice or still training.

1993: 248pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-09355-2: £23.95/$42.50

A Psychoanalytic Theory of Infantile Experience

Conceptual and Clinical Reflections

E. Gaddini

Edited by Adam Limentani

"The many clinical vignettes illuminating his papers show him to have had real clinical sensitivity in his work with adults... This is an important book." - Anne Hayman, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

Gaddini, an eminent Italian training analyst, was interested in the relationship between mental development and early body development. In this edited selection of his papers, clinical examples are used to illustrate and convincingly support his theories.

1992: 240pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-07435-3: £23.95/$42.50

Psychic Experience and Problems of Technique

Harold Stewart

Foreword by Pearl King

"I warmly recommend this book as the complex issues of theory and technique are of interest to all psychoanalysts. Stewart writes with a great clarity of style." - International Forum of Psychoanalysis

Dr Harold Stewart draws on 30 years of clinical experience to explore the concepts of thinking, dreams and inner space.

1991: 176pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-05975-6: £23.95/$42.50

Clinical Lectures on Klein and Bion

Edited by Robin Anderson, in private practice, London, UK

Foreword by Hanna Segal

"Outstanding for its readability, clinical approach and teaching qualities."

- Tavistock Gazette

Clinical Lectures on Klein and Bion outlines the basic ideas in their thinking and shows in detail how these ideas can be used to tackle a clinical problem.

1991: 160pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-06993-9: £22.95/$42.50

From Fetus to Child

An Observational and Psychoanalytic Study

Alessandra Piontelli, in private practice, Milan, and University of Milan, Italy

"This is a unique and refreshing text... the reader gains by the excellent portrayal of current concepts and studies of gestation, twinning, and medical and social procedures of infancy." - American Journal of Psychiatry

Alessandra Piontelli describes in moving detail her observations of the behaviour of several children from very early stages in the womb, through birth, to infancy and childhood. By drawing on her experiences as a child psychotherapist and psychoanalyst she is able to investigate issues relating to individuality, psychological birth and the influence of maternal emotions during pregnancy.

1992: 272pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-07437-7: £23.95/$42.50

Dream, Phantasy and Art

Hanna Segal, Honorary Member, British Psychoanalytical Society, and winner of the 1992 Sigourney Award

Foreword by Betty Joseph, Winner of the 1995 Sigourney Award

"This book, which along with the many other contributions Hanna Segal has made to psychoanalysis in the course of a long and productive professional life, will stand as a further testament to her creative capacity."

- Psychoanalytic Quarterly

Hanna Segal's work, especially on symbolism, aesthetics, dreams, and the exploration of psychotic thinking, has established her as an outstanding figure in psychoanalysis, particularly in psychoanalysis of the Kleinian tradition. In Dream, Phantasy and Art she reworks her ideas on these topics and brings them vividly alive in a new integration which links them afresh to the work of Freud, Klein, and Bion.

1990: 144pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-01798-5: £22.95/$42.50

for further books by Hanna Segal see pages 6, 14

About Children and Children-No-Longer Collected Papers (1942-80)

Paula Heimann

Edited by Margaret Tonnesmann

"The reader is able to explore and follow Heimann's development as a thinker, clinician, and psychoanalyst, through what were clearly difficult and stormy periods, to her emergence as an individual in her own right – being herself, which I hope all psychoanalysts seek for themselves and their patients." - The Psychoanalytic Quarterly

About Children and Children-No-Longer is a valuable reference collection of Paula Heimann's published and unpublished papers. Paula Heimann's ideas on infant development and her unique knowledge of both Kleinian object relations theory and classical theory and technique, make her work very relevant both to present-day practice and the understanding of the historical development of psychoanalytic ideas.

1990: 377pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-04119-5: £23.95/$42.50

The Freud-Klein Controversies 1941-45

Edited by Pearl King, Winner of the 1992 Sigourney Award, and Riccardo Steiner, Winner of the 2001 Sigourney Award

"The most important document from post-Freudian psycho-analysis."
- André Green

Following Freud's death in 1939, the radical theories of Melanie Klein were the subject of prolonged controversy and fierce debate within the British Psychoanalytical Society.

In the midst of, or as a result of, the personal animosities and political manoeuvrings, important intellectual contributions were made, and practical decisions taken, which were to affect the development of psychoanalysis down to the present day.

The Freud-Klein Controversies 1941-45 offers the first complete record of the debate, including all relevant papers and correspondence, based on previously closed archive material which is presented without censorship.

1992: 996pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-08274-7: £47.50/$85.00

Melanie Klein Today Developments in Theory and Practice

Volume 2: Mainly Practice

Edited by Elizabeth Bott Spillius, Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst, British Psychoanalytical Society

"The credit for this volume goes to the excellent editorial work of Elizabeth Bott Spillius. The material is well organized in distinct sections. The papers in each section are introduced and critically discussed." - Daniel Traub-Werner, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

In Melanie Klein Today, Volume 2, Elizabeth Bott Spillius brings together classic and new papers to make it possible to understand the main elements of the Kleinian therapeutic technique.

1988: 336pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-01045-0: £23.95/$42.50

Melanie Klein Today Developments in Theory and Practice

Volume 1: Mainly Theory

Edited by Elizabeth Bott Spillius, Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst, British Psychoanalytical Society

"Elizabeth Spillius cannot be too warmly congratulated. Readers who are not very familiar with recent Kleinian work will find the papers she has selected extremely informative and in virtually every case impressive." - William Gillerpies, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

Melanie Klein Today: Volume 1 is the first of two volumes of collected essays devoted to developments in psychoanalysis based on the work of Melanie Klein.

1988: 368pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-00676-7: £23.95/$42.50

Psychic Equilibrium and Psychic Change Selected Papers of Betty Joseph

Edited by Michael Feldman, Training Analyst, British Psychoanalytical Society, and Elizabeth Bott Spillius, Training and Supervising Psychoanalyst, British Psychoanalytical Society

Foreword by Hanna Segal

"[This] excellent book should help raise the level of understanding and practice of all psychoanalysts, whatever their avowed belongingness to one or other school of thought." - The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

This collection of Betty Joseph's most important papers examines the development of her thought and shows why a crucial part of her theory and practice is concerned with the detailed, sensitive scrutiny of the therapeutic process itself.

1989: 240pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-04117-1: £23.95/$42.50

The Theatre of the Dream

Salomon Resnik, Psychoanalyst, Paris and Venice

Translated by Alan Sheridan

"This is a profound and fascinating essay on the nature of the dream and its relationship to the waking state by a long-standing member of the International Psychoanalytical Association. Freud is both appreciated and transcended in a work that synthesises, in an original way." - Donald R. Ferrell, PhD

The Theatre of the Dream is a profound study of our dream world and its place in everyday life. The author argues that the dream is a theatrical re-creation of certain unconscious experiences, which are both subjective and objective at the same time.

1987: 218pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-21486-5: £23.95/$42.50

for a further book by Salomon Resnik see page 10

Thinking, Feeling, and Being

Clinical Reflections on the Fundamental Antinomy of Human Beings and World

Ignacio Matte-Blanco

"In applying the complexities and paradoxes of mathematical logic to psychoanalysis, Matte-Blanco has enriched it incredibly and has given us fascinating new instruments to wield in the clinical situation."

- James S. Grotstein, The International Journal of Psychoanalysis

1988: 360pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-00678-1: £23.95/$42.50

The Riddle of Freud

Jewish Influences on his Theory of Female Sexuality

Estelle Roith

"There is so much interesting material succinctly written in this book and with a great deal of reference to a wide range of sources, that it is hard to select from it. I recommend it to anyone interested in the derivations of analytic theories about women's psychology."

- Jean Thomson, The Journal of Analytical Psychology

1987: 207pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-21487-2: £23.95/$42.50

Impasse and Interpretation

Therapeutic and Anti-Therapeutic Factors in the Psychoanalytic Treatment of Psychotic, Borderline, and Neurotic Patients

Herbert Rosenfeld

"This book is as valuable to the author's critics as it is to the many people who have followed his approach... Rosenfeld's approach to the treatment of psychoses is an individual one, and this book is a valuable and coherent contribution to its understanding." - British Journal of Medical Psychology

1987: 336pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-01012-2: £23.95/$42.50

Psychoanalysis and Discourse

Patrick Mahony, Practising Psychoanalyst and winner of the 1993 Sigourney Award

After a detailed discussion of the significance of translation as a critical concept in psychoanalysis, Patrick Mahony proceeds to a comprehensive examination of 'free association', the cornerstone of psychoanalytic method.

2001: 259pp.

Pb: 978-1-58391-185-3: £23.95/$42.50

The Suppressed Madness of Sane Men

Forty-Four Years of Exploring Psychoanalysis

Marion Milner

"The humanity and the sheer imaginative flair of the book sweep one along... a valuable addition to the literature."

- Community Care

Marion Milner introduces this edited collection of her papers from 1942 to 1977 with a fascinating biographical account of her development in psychoanalysis.

1987: 320pp.

Pb: 978-0-415-03673-3: £23.95/$42.50

The Taming of Solitude

Separation Anxiety in Psychoanalysis

Jean-Michel Quinodoz, in private practice, Geneva, Switzerland

Foreword by Hanna Segal

"The Taming of Solitude is well written and a pleasure to read... It is an authoritative account of separation anxiety and the ample clinical material gives a glimpse into how Quinodoz works with it." - British Journal of Psychotherapy

Beautifully translated from French, The Taming of Solitude brings together the views of Freud, Klein, Hanna Segal, W.R.D. Fairbairn, D.W. Winnicott, Anna Freud, Margaret Mahler, Heinz Kohut, John Bowlby and others, presenting a comprehensive approach to the experience of loneliness.

1993: 224pp.

THE NEW LIBRARY OF PSYCHOANALYSIS

General Editor: Dana Birksted-Breen
Assistant Editor: Alessandra Lemma

The New Library of Psychoanalysis was launched in 1987 in association with the Institute of Psychoanalysis, London. Its purpose is to facilitate a greater and more widespread appreciation of psychoanalysis and to provide a forum for increasing mutual understanding between psychoanalysts and those working in other disciplines such as the social sciences, medicine, philosophy, history, linguistics, literature and the arts. It aims to represent different trends both in British psychoanalysis and in psychoanalysis generally. The New Library of Psychoanalysis is well placed to make available to the English-speaking world psychoanalytic writings from other European countries and to increase the interchange of ideas between British and American psychoanalysts.

The Institute, together with the British Psychoanalytical Society, runs a low-fee psychoanalytic clinic, organizes lectures and scientific events concerned with psychoanalysis and publishes the International Journal of Psychoanalysis. It also runs the only UK training course in psychoanalysis which leads to membership of the International Psychoanalytical Association – the body which preserves internationally agreed standards of training, of professional entry, and of professional ethics and practice for psychoanalysis as initiated and developed by Sigmund Freud. Distinguished members of the Institute have included Michael Balint, Wilfred Bion, Ronald Fairbairn, Anna Freud, Ernest Jones, Melanie Klein, John Rickman and Donald Winnicott.

Previous General Editors include David Tuckett, Elizabeth Spillius and Susan Budd. Previous and current Members of the Advisory Board include Christopher Bollas, Ronald Britton, Catalina Bronstein, Donald Campbell, Sara Flanders, Stephen Grosz, John Keene, Eglé Laufer, Juliet Mitchell, Michael Parsons, Rosine Jozef Perelberg, Richard Rusbridger, Mary Target, David Taylor, and Alessandra Lemma who is now Assistant Editor.
