Special Issue Call For Papers:

Title: Evidence Based Practice: Using EBCAI Effectively

Editors: Ralf Schlosser and Jeff Sigafoos

Call For Papers:

Evidence-Based Communication Assessment and Intervention announces a call for papers on topics relating to the specific use and practical influence of the journal in Evidence-Based Communication Disorders treatment. The special issue would feature brief articles (10-15 double-spaced pages) all part of the EBCAI Speaker's Corner, featuring specific applications of EBCAI content for a given purpose. These could include, but are not limited to:

- Using EBCAI commentaries/articles to teach appraisal skills for EBP
- Using EBCAI commentaries/articles to teach research design principles
- Using EBCAI commentaries to inform my clinical practice
- Using EBCAI commentaries/articles to develop a systematic review protocol
- Using EBCAI commentaries/articles to develop a randomized control trial
- Using EBCAI commentaries in clinical supervision.

If you are interested in discussing an idea, please contact either Jeff Sigafoos (Jeff.Sigafoos@vuw.ac.nz) or Ralf Schlosser (R.Schlosser@neu.edu).

The deadline for submissions is 31st July 2011.
